

AN ACT RELATIVE TO THE RETIREMENT AND PENSIONING OF PERSONS IN THE PRISON SERVICE OF THE COMMONWEALTH. Chap.461

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

Chapter six hundred and one of the acts of nineteen hundred and eight is hereby amended by striking out section two, and substituting the following: — Section 2. The words “prison service” as used in section one of this act, as amended by chapter two hundred and seventy-three of the General Acts of nineteen hundred and sixteen, shall be construed to mean service in the state prison, the Massachusetts reformatory, the state farm, the reformatory prison for women, the prison camp and hospital or in any jail or house of correction in Massachusetts; and an officer of any one of the said institutions shall, for the purposes of this act, be credited with all the time which he has served as an officer with a good record in any of them. Any person in the employ of an institution mentioned in section one, as amended by said chapter two hundred and seventy-three, who, prior to June seven, nineteen hundred and eleven, began prison service in any of the institutions mentioned in this act as so amended shall also have included as a part of his service all the service rendered by him as an officer or instructor, with a good record, at the industrial school for boys, Lyman school for boys, industrial school for girls, Suffolk school for boys of Suffolk county, or any county training school in Massachusetts. The words “good record” shall be construed to mean that the officer was not discharged for misconduct from any of the said institutions, or that, if so discharged, it was afterward found that he was not at fault; and restoration to duty or reappointment in the institution from which he was discharged shall be sufficient evidence of exoneration.

1908, 601, § 2, amended.

Retirement and pensioning of persons in prison service of commonwealth, certain terms defined, etc.

Approved May 14, 1920.
