

By Mr. Kulik of Worthington, petition of Stephen Kulik, other members of the House and another relative to property tax overlay amounts. Taxation.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Ninety-Five.

AN ACT RELATIVE TO PROPERTY TAX OVERLAY AMOUNTS.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Section 25 of Chapter 59 of the General Laws, as appearing in 2 the 1992 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out the 3 first sentence and inserting in place thereof the following sen-
4 tence: —

5 The assessors in any city or town may add to the amount to be 6 assessed such reasonable amount as the commissioner may 7 approve although the total limit of taxation as provided in section 8 twenty-one C of this chapter may by such overlay be exceeded in 9 an amount not to exceed an amount equal to the average overlay 10 for the three prior fiscal years, such amount to be used only for 11 avoiding fractional divisions of the amount to be assessed in the 12 apportionment thereof and for abatements and exemptions granted 13 on account of property assessed for the fiscal year for which the 14 overlay is made or of taxes in the warrant of which the overlay is 15 a part, but any balance in the overlay account, in excess of the 16 amount of the warrant remaining to be collected or abated, as cer-
17 tified by the board of assessors, shall be transferred by the board
18 of assessors upon their own initiative or within ten days of a 19 written request by the chief executive officer, to a reserve fund to 20 be appropriated for any local purpose; any balance in said reserve
21 fund at the end of the fiscal year shall be closed out to surplus 22 revenue.
