THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, May 12, 1981.

The committee on Health Care, to whom was referred the petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 2606) of Andrew J. Rogers, Jr., John F. Cusack, Nicholas J. Buglione and Stephen J. Karol for legislation to further regulate a formulary of interchangeable drug products, reports recommending that the accompanying order (House, No. 6769) ought to be adopted.

For the committee,

THEODORE J. ALEIXO, JR.

Ordered, That the committee on Health Care be authorized to sit during the recess of the General Court for the purpose of making an investigation and study of the subject matter of the current house document numbered 2606, relative to the formulary of interchangeable drug products. Said committee shall be provided with quarters in the state house or elsewhere, may hold hearings, may require by summons the attendance and testimony of witnesses, may travel within and without the commonwealth and may expend for expert, legal, clerical and other services and for expenses such sums as may be appropriated therefor. Said committee shall report to the General Court from time to time the results of its investigation and study and its recommendations, if any, together with drafts of legislation necessary to carry its recommendations into effect by filing the same with the Clerk of the House of Representatives on or before the first Wednesday of December, nineteen hundred and eighty-one.
