

Chap. 20 AN ACT PENALIZING THE POSSESSION OF CERTAIN WILD BIRDS.*Be it enacted, etc., as follows:*G. L. 131, § 26, amended.Penalty for taking, killing
or possessing
certain wild birds.

Section twenty-six of chapter one hundred and thirty-one of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out, in the first and fourth lines, the word "or" and inserting in place thereof in each instance a comma, — by inserting after the word "kills" in the first line the words: — or has in possession, — and by adding at the end thereof the words: — or had in possession, — so as to read as follows: — Section 26. Whoever takes, kills or has in possession a Bartramian sandpiper, also called upland plover, a wood duck, a Carolina or mourning dove, a gull or a tern shall be punished by a fine of not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars for every bird so taken, killed or had in possession.

Approved February 8, 1928.Chap. 21 AN ACT RELATIVE TO THE REVOCATION OF LOBSTER LICENSES ON SECOND OR SUBSEQUENT CONVICTIONS OF VIOLATIONS OF THE FISH AND GAME LAWS.*Be it enacted, etc., as follows:*G. L. 130, § 105, amended.Revocation of lobster licenses
on second or subsequent convictions of violations of
fish and game
laws.

Proviso.

Chapter one hundred and thirty of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out section one hundred and five and inserting in place thereof the following: — Section 105. If a licensee under the preceding section is convicted a second or subsequent time within a period of three years of violation of the same or a different provision of the fish and game laws he shall immediately surrender his license to the officer who secured the second conviction, and the license shall be void, and the licensee shall not receive another such license until after the expiration of one year from the date of the second conviction; provided, that a conviction of having short lobsters in possession shall not be counted as a conviction under this section unless more than two per cent in count of the lobsters in possession by the licensee were short lobsters.

Approved February 8, 1928.Chap. 22 AN ACT REVIVING THE INTERNATIONAL MEDICAL MISSIONARY SOCIETY.*Be it enacted, etc., as follows:*The International
Medical Missionary Society
revived.

The International Medical Missionary Society, a corporation dissolved by chapter one hundred and fifty-seven of the Special Acts of nineteen hundred and seventeen, is hereby revived with the same powers, duties and obligations as if said chapter had not been passed.

Approved February 8, 1928.