approved may also participate.

The governing body of each city and town shall be responsible for developing a plan for a year-round hot lunch program for the elderly.

The bureau of nutrition education and school food services in the department of education may contract with nonprofit public or private agencies and independent and public school systems for the preparation and serving of meals to the elderly in accordance with the provisions of this section.

Such meals may be prepared by schools and served on site or be prepared in central production centers for service at sites more convenient to the elderly.

The operation of such school lunch programs by public or independent schools shall be subject to the following conditions and restrictions:

(1) The charge to such persons for each lunch shall not exceed fifty cents.

(2) The lunches served shall meet the nutritional standards established in accordance with Title III of the Older Americans Act of 1965, as amended.

(3) The procedures determined by each designated school committee or independent school in serving such lunches shall be approved by the bureau of nutrition education and school food services in the department of education.

As used in this section, the words "authorized elderly persons" shall mean persons sixty years of age and over and their spouses. Subject to appropriation, the commonwealth may reimburse any city, town, or regional public or independent school system or any public or private nonprofit agency for such costs as are incurred in excess of fifty cents for each such lunch prepared and served, upon written request by such city, town, or regional public or independent school system or any public or private nonprofit agency to the commissioner of education on such form as he may prescribe. If the commissioner approves such request, he shall certify to the comptroller that such payments are due and the state treasurer pay the same. Any federal funds provided annually for the purposes of this program shall be expended prior to the use of any funds appropriated by the commonwealth.
