

By Mr. Peck of Dartmouth, petition of Raymond S. Peck for the payment from the state treasury to the widow of Fred F. Cain of Wilmington the salary to which he would have been entitled had he lived and served until the end of the term for which he was elected. Ways and Means (House).

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Seventy-Seven.

RESOLVE IN FAVOR OF ANN T. CAIN, WIDOW OF FRED F. CAIN.

1 Resolved, That, for the purpose of promoting the public good,
2 and after an appropriation has been made therefor, there be paid 3 out of the state treasury to Ann T. Cain, the widow of the late Fred 4 F. Cain who died while a member of the present house of 5 representatives, the salary to which he would have been entitled 6 had he lived and served until the end of the term for which he was 7 elected.

the Board of Directors, in that of them and in that of the
and also from the other members of the Board of Directors
and also from the other members of the Board of Directors
and also from the other members of the Board of Directors
and also from the other members of the Board of Directors

The Constitution of the Board of Directors

Article I. The Board of Directors shall consist of Section 1. The Board of Directors shall consist of Section 2. The Board of Directors shall have the power to and also to employ and discharge such persons as it may think proper for the management of the business of the corporation and also to make and alter such bylaws as may be necessary for the carrying out of its powers and to amend or repeal the same at any time.