Approved March 1, 1900.

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE TOWN OF BUCKLAND TO INCUR CERTAIN INDEBTEDNESS FOR THE ERECTION OF A SCHOOL BUILDING, BEYOND THE LIMIT FIXED BY LAW.

Chap. 113

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. The town of Buckland, for the purpose of erecting a new school building and acquiring land therefor, may incur a debt not exceeding fifteen thousand dollars, and may issue negotiable bonds therefor to an amount not exceeding said sum. Such bonds shall be payable at the expiration of periods not exceeding thirty years from the date of issue, shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding four per cent per annum, and shall be signed by the treasurer and countersigned by the selectmen of the town. The town may sell such securities at public or private sale, or pledge the same for money borrowed for the purposes of this act, upon such terms and conditions as it deems proper: provided, that said securities shall not be sold or pledged for less than the par value thereof with accrued interest.

Town of Buckland may incur certain indebtedness, issue bonds, etc.

Proviso.

SECTION 2. The indebtedness incurred under this act shall not be reckoned in determining the authorized limit of indebtedness of said town under the provisions of section four of chapter twenty-nine of the Public Statutes and acts in amendment thereof; but the provisions of said chapter shall in all other respects apply to the indebtedness authorized by this act and the securities issued hereunder.

Not to be reckoned in determining debt limit, etc.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

Approved March 1, 1900.
