15 period of one year after the expiration of the time limited in the 16 mortgage for the full performance of the condition thereof, or for 17 any period of 20 years after the recording of a deed from the mort-
18 gagor or his heirs or devisees to the bona fide purchaser, which deed 19 did not evidence that title was taken subject to the mortgage or that 20 the purchaser assumed or agreed to pay the mortgage; or (2) in the 21 case of the mortgagor, or the mortgagor's heirs, devisees or succes-
22 sors by operation of law, for any period of one year after the expira-23 tion of the time limited in the mortgage for the full performance of 24 the condition thereof, or for any period of 20 years after the date of a 25 mortgage not given to secure the payment of money or a debt but to 26 secure the mortgagee against a contingent liability which has so

34 payment on account of the debt secured by the mortgage within the

35 relevant period of uninterrupted possession or of any other act 36 within the time in recognition of its existence as a valid mortgage, or 37 if the court finds that the contingent liability has ceased to exist and 38 that the mortgage ought to be discharged, it may enter a decree dis-
39 charging the mortgage, which decree, when duly recorded in the reg-40 istry of deeds for the county or district where the land lies or, in the 41 case of registered land, when duly noted on the memorandum of 42 encumbrances of the relevant certificate of title, shall operate as a 43 discharge of said mortgage and no action to enforce a title under the 44 mortgage shall thereafter be maintained. Two or more persons 45 owning in severalty different portions or different interests, such as 46 are described in section 11, in the land subject to the mortgage may 47 join in 1 petition, and 2 or more defects arising under different mort-

49 If the petition is contested, the court shall make an appropriate order 50 for separate issues.
