

By Mr. Mariano of Quincy, petition of Ronald Mariano relative to criminal offender record information checks for assisted living employees. The Judiciary.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand and Seven.

AN ACT RELATIVE TO CRIMINAL OFFENDER RECORD INFORMATION CHECKS FOR ASSISTED LIVING EMPLOYEES.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Chapter 6 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting
2 after section 172E the following section:—

3 Section 172E½. Notwithstanding any provision of section 172,
4 criminal record information shall be available to any assisted living
5 residences as defined in section 1 of chapter 19D and to any contin-6 uing care facility as defined in section 1 of chapter 40D for the 7 purpose of obtaining criminal offender record information on an 8 applicant under final consideration for, or an individual currently 9 employed in, a position that involves the provision of direct personal 10 care or treatment to residents of such facility. Any such assisted 11 living residence or continuing care facility shall obtain all available 12 criminal offender record information from the criminal history
13 systems board on an applicant under final consideration for a
14 position that involves the provision of direct personal care or treat-15 ment to residents.

16 An assisted living residence or continuing care facility which 17 obtains information under this section shall prohibit the dissemina-18 tion of such information for any purpose other than to further the 19 protection of the elderly or the disabled, including, but not limited 20 to, dissemination among and between assisted living residences and 21 continuing care facilities.

22 An assisted living residence or continuing care facility may 23 employ an individual for a position that involves the provision of 24 direct personal care or treatment to residents of such facility on a

25 conditional basis prior to receiving the results of such individual's 26 criminal offender record check from the criminal history systems 27 board.

28 No assisted living residence or continuing care facility shall be 29 liable for civil damages to any individual so conditionally employed 30 and subsequently discharged by reason of information received as a
31 result of a criminal offender record information check completed
32 pursuant to this section.

33 The criminal history system board may waive or reduce the fee
34 assessable pursuant to section 172A for criminal offender record
35 information made available pursuant to this section.

36 Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, the 37 division of medical assistance shall, subject to appropriation, 38 reimburse assisted living residences and continuing care facilities for 39 the portion of the costs associated with obtaining criminal record
40 information on employees pursuant to this section.
