

HOUSE....No. 282.

---

---

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

---

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, May 4, 1865.

The Committee on Public Charitable Institutions, to whom was referred the Senate Order of February 9, have duly considered the same, and report the accompanying Bill.

Per order,

E. P. BROWNELL.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

---

In the Year One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Five.

---

AN ACT

Providing for Additional Trustees for the Nautical Branch of the State Reform School.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives, in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1    SECT. 1    The government of the Nautical Branch
2 of the State Reform School shall hereafter be vested
3 in a board of seven trustees.

1    SECT. 2.   The trustees now in office, appointed by
2 the governor and council, shall continue to hold their
3 offices until the terms thereof expire, according to the
4 provisions of this act.

1    SECT. 3.   As soon as convenient after the passage
2 of this act, the governor and council shall appoint
3 two additional trustees. The term of office of the 4 senior member, as they stand arranged on the list of

5 their appointment, shall terminate on the first Wed-
6 nesday in February in each year, and the name of the 7 person appointed to fill the vacancy shall be placed
8 at the bottom of the list. Other vacancies may at 9 any time be filled, and the name of the person ap-
10 pointed shall be substituted in the list for the remain-
11 der of the vacant term. Any person may be reap-
12 pointed. The trustees now in office, by appointment
13 from the Boston Board of Trade and the Boston
14 Marine Society, respectively, shall remain in office for 15 the term for which they are appointed; and the said
16 Board of Trade and the said Marine Society shall 17 each, annually, appoint one trustee for the term of
18 one year from the said first Wednesday in February,
19 who, with the five trustees appointed by the governor
20 and council as aforesaid, shall constitute the board.
21 The trustees shall be removable only for sufficient
22 cause.

1     SECT. 4. The trustees shall receive no compensa-
2 tion for their services, but shall be allowed all ex-
3 penses incurred by them in the discharge of their
4 duties.

1     SECT. 5. Section thirteen of chapter seventy-six
2 of the General Statutes, and so much of section
3 twelve of the same chapter as is inconsistent with this
4 act, are hereby repealed.

1     SECT. 6. This act shall take effect upon its
2 passage.

1. The first section of the Act, which is contained in the first Schedule, provides that the Secretary to the Government shall be appointed by the Governor in Council, and that he shall hold office for a term of five years, or until he attains the age of sixty years, whichever is the earlier.

2. The second section provides that the Secretary shall be qualified to hold office as a Magistrate of the first class, and that he shall be appointed as such Magistrate.

3. The third section provides that the Secretary shall be entitled to such allowances and emoluments as may be determined by the Governor in Council.

4. The fourth section provides that the Secretary shall be entitled to such powers and duties as may be assigned to him by the Governor in Council.

5. The fifth section provides that the Secretary shall be entitled to such powers and duties as may be assigned to him by the Governor in Council.

6. The sixth section provides that the Secretary shall be entitled to such powers and duties as may be assigned to him by the Governor in Council.

7. The seventh section provides that the Secretary shall be entitled to such powers and duties as may be assigned to him by the Governor in Council.

8. The eighth section provides that the Secretary shall be entitled to such powers and duties as may be assigned to him by the Governor in Council.

9. The ninth section provides that the Secretary shall be entitled to such powers and duties as may be assigned to him by the Governor in Council.

10. The tenth section provides that the Secretary shall be entitled to such powers and duties as may be assigned to him by the Governor in Council.

11. The eleventh section provides that the Secretary shall be entitled to such powers and duties as may be assigned to him by the Governor in Council.

12. The twelfth section provides that the Secretary shall be entitled to such powers and duties as may be assigned to him by the Governor in Council.

13. The thirteenth section provides that the Secretary shall be entitled to such powers and duties as may be assigned to him by the Governor in Council.

14. The fourteenth section provides that the Secretary shall be entitled to such powers and duties as may be assigned to him by the Governor in Council.

15. The fifteenth section provides that the Secretary shall be entitled to such powers and duties as may be assigned to him by the Governor in Council.

16. The sixteenth section provides that the Secretary shall be entitled to such powers and duties as may be assigned to him by the Governor in Council.

17. The seventeenth section provides that the Secretary shall be entitled to such powers and duties as may be assigned to him by the Governor in Council.

18. The eighteenth section provides that the Secretary shall be entitled to such powers and duties as may be assigned to him by the Governor in Council.

19. The nineteenth section provides that the Secretary shall be entitled to such powers and duties as may be assigned to him by the Governor in Council.

20. The twentieth section provides that the Secretary shall be entitled to such powers and duties as may be assigned to him by the Governor in Council.