

$1500 Off Closing Costs, Other Discounts Help Summertime Homebuyers

This summer, MassHousing is offering a number of special savings to make it easier to buy a home in Massachusetts! Learn more...

MassHousing Wrapping Up Strong FY 2017

The numbers are still being finalized, but it appears that 2017 will go down as one of the strongest lending years in MassHousing's history. Read more...

Another workforce housing development gets underway,

this time in Beverly

Governor Baker was in Beverly to help break ground on the latest workforce housing development financed by MassHousing. Read more...

214 units completed in Duxbury with $21M from MassHousing

The South Shore community of Duxbury is now home to 214 new apartments, developed by Beacon Communities and financed in part by MassHousing. Read more...

Conference confronts mental health challenges in rental housing

Nearly 400 housing professionals gathered recently for a frank conversation about mental health issues in mixed-income apartment communities. Read more...

Trade Fair Advances Minority- and Women-Owned Businesses

For the 27th year, MassHousing brought together dozens of small businesses and the developers and property management companies looking to hire them. Read more...

MassHousing Recognized for Supplier Diversity, Communications

June is Awards Season for MassHousing! The Agency was honored as a 'Quasi-Public Organization of the Year' by the Operational Services Division, and was recognized by the Publicity Club of New England for our 2016 Annual Report. Read

more...

Recent News from MassHousing

- Natasha Boye joins HomeOwnership Business Development Team
 - \$9M from MassHousing supports renovations, creates workforce units in Newton
 - MassHousing becomes 1st HFA to complete FHA Tax Credit Transaction, Extends Affordability in Gardner
 - Springfield's Maple Commons to see renovations, safety improvements with \$21M from MassHousing
 - Affordability extended, renovations planned at Clark House in Amherst
-

