On the Petition of Charles Blair and John C. B. Davis, Administrators.

Resolved, for the reasons set forth in said petition, that the said Charles Blair and John C. B. Davis, administrators of the goods and estate which were of Cyrus Stockwell, late of said Worcester, deceased, be, and they hereby are authorized to sell, at public or private sale, the note and mortgage described in said petition, to wit: a mortgage of the Central Hotel estate, so called, in Worcester, from Nathan Heard to said Stockwell, dated October 1st, A. D. 1844, and a note of that date for thirty-five hundred and fifty dollars secured thereby, and assign the same, and make, execute and deliver all deeds necessary therefor, and for conveying the said Stockwell's interest therein
