

HOUSE....No. 18.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

AUDITOR'S OFFICE, BOSTON, }
January 26th, 1852. }

Hon. N. P. BANKS, JR.,

Speaker of the House of Representatives :

SIR,—In compliance with an order of the House, dated 24th inst., I have the honor to furnish the accompanying statement, exhibiting the names of the persons employed by the Commissioners in relation to Aliens and State Paupers, under the act of 1851, ch. 342, together with the amount paid or due to each, and also all other expenses consequent upon the action of said commissioners, so far as known, up to the first day of the present month.

There was, at that time, a reduction of the force in employ, and consequently of the expenses, though it is not known precisely to what extent.

I am, very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

DAVID WILDER, JR., Auditor.
