[Reported by the Committee on Probate and Chancery.]

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

In the Year One Thousand Eight Hundred and Fifty-
Two.

AN ACT

Concerning Trustees.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1 SECT. 1. The judges of the Supreme Judicial
2 Court, and the judges of the several Courts of Pro-
3 bate in their several counties, upon application of the 4 parties (other than the trustee) beneficially interested
5 in any trust estate, whether such estate be created by
6 deed, indenture, or other instrument, may, at the de-
7 sire of such parties, remove the trustee of such estate

8 and appoint a new trustee, who shall possess all the 9 powers and be compelled to perform all the duties of
 10 the trustee originally appointed; such new trustee
 11 giving the like bonds and security as is required by 12 the deed, indenture, or other instrument creating the 13 trust estate.

IN SENATE, April 15, 1852.

Passed to be engrossed.

Sent down for concurrence.
