

SENATE...No. 118.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

IN SENATE, March 15, 1859.

The Committee on Public Charitable Institutions, to whom was referred the Bill in favor of deserving youth in the State Reformatory Schools, report the accompanying Resolve.

R. T. DAVIS, Chairman.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

In the Year One Thousand Eight Hundred and Fifty-Nine.

RESOLVE

In favor of Deserving Pupils of the State Reform School and State Industrial School.

Resolved, That a sum not exceeding one thousand dollars be allowed from the treasury of the Commonwealth for the assistance and education of such pupils of the State Reform School for Boys, and the State Industrial School for Girls, as may be designated by the governor, upon the certificate of the trustees of either of the said schools, that said pupils are worthy of special encouragement for good conduct, in order that those pupils may be made competent to engage in some useful vocation or trade, and that the governor be authorized to draw his warrant accordingly: provided, that not more than one hundred dollars be applied for the benefit of any one pupil, and that the amount applied for the benefit of any pupil be expended under the direction of the trustees of the school to which such pupil shall have been committed.
