

AN ACT RELATIVE TO THE LOCATION UPON THE OFFICIAL Chap.293
 BALLOT IN THE CITY OF CAMBRIDGE OF NAMES OF CANDIDATES FOR ALDERMEN.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. The names of candidates for aldermen in the city of Cambridge shall be printed upon the official ballot in the order in which they may be drawn by the city clerk whose duty it shall be to make such drawing. The city clerk shall, before proceeding to draw the names as aforesaid, give notice in writing to the several candidates of the time and place of the drawing, and every such candidate may be present thereat or may be represented by one person. The said notice shall be mailed, postage prepaid, to each candidate at the residence stated on the nomination papers, at least twenty-four hours before the time fixed for the drawing; and the drawing shall be made not more than forty-eight hours after the last day for filing nominations for aldermen.

Order of names of certain candidates upon official ballot, etc.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

Approved March 25, 1910.

AN ACT TO INCORPORATE THE FORSYTH DENTAL INFIRMARY FOR CHILDREN. Chap.294

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. Thomas Alexander Forsyth, Frederick William Hamilton, Edward Walter Branigan, Harold Williams, John Francis Dowsley, Ervin Arthur Johnson, Timothy Leary, Sumner Robinson, Chester Bradley Humphrey, and their associates and successors, are hereby made a corporation by the name of the Forsyth Dental Infirmary for Children, for the purpose of establishing and maintaining an infirmary for the reception and oral treatment, dental, medical and surgical, of children under the age of sixteen years, and of such other persons as the corporation may from time to time determine.

Forsyth Dental Infirmary for Children incorporated.

SECTION 2. Said corporation may receive and hold for the purposes of said corporation real and personal estate which may from time to time be given, granted, bequeathed or devised to it and accepted by the corporation. Said corporation may convey and turn over any property received by it to any trust company incorporated under the laws of the commonwealth upon such trusts for its benefit as the corporation may declare and determine, and any such trust company may receive and hold in trust any such property and also any other property, real or personal, which may be conveyed to it by will, trust deed, or otherwise, by any person or other corporation for the benefit of said corporation. The aggregate value of real and personal property so held by said corporation and so held in trust for its benefit shall not exceed two million dollars.

May receive and hold real and personal estate, etc.

Purposes for which income and profits shall be used, etc.

SECTION 3. No part of the income or profits of said corporation or of property held in trust for said corporation shall be divided among its members or shall be used for other than educational, benevolent, charitable or scientific purposes. The personal property of said corporation and personal property held in trust as aforesaid for its benefit, the real estate owned by it, or held in trust as aforesaid for its benefit, and occupied by it or its officers for the purposes for which it is incorporated, and real estate purchased by it, or by such trustee for its benefit, with the purpose of removal thereto, until such removal, but not for more than two years after such purchase, shall be exempt from taxation in any year in which the corporation shall not wilfully omit to bring in to the assessors the list or statement required by section forty-one of Part I of chapter four hundred and ninety of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and nine, said list or statement to include all real and personal estate held in trust for its benefit as aforesaid by such trust company or trust companies of which it has knowledge.

Membership.

SECTION 4. Said corporation shall consist of the aforesaid incorporators and of such other persons as may at any legal meeting of the corporation be elected members thereof by ballot.

Board of trustees, etc.

SECTION 5. Said corporation may delegate any of its powers to a board of trustees, consisting of not less than five nor more than ten members, who shall be elected by ballot at any legal meeting of the corporation. Said corporation may adopt such by-laws, create such offices, elect such officers, and otherwise manage the affairs thereof in such manner as it sees fit.

SECTION 6. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

Approved March 25, 1910.