

the price fixed as aforesaid his proportion of such new shares at the date of such vote to increase. If at the expiration of such time any shares remain untaken, the directors may sell the same for the benefit of the corporation in such manner and for such price, not less than the price fixed as aforesaid, as they may determine. However the increase is made, the company shall, within thirty days after the issue of such certificates, submit to the insurance commissioner a certificate stating the amount of the increase and the facts of the transaction, signed and sworn to by its president and secretary and a majority of its directors. If the commissioner finds that the facts conform to the law he shall indorse his approval thereof; and, upon filing such certificate so indorsed with the secretary of the commonwealth and the payment of a fee of five dollars for filing the same, the company may transact business upon the capital as increased and the commissioner shall issue his certificate to that effect.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon its passage.
