Lt. Governor Karyn Polito's Schedule for Thursday, February 15, 2018

BOSTON – Tomorrow, Lt. Governor Karyn Polito will join Senator Mike Rush, Representative Paul McMurtry and officials from the town of Dedham to celebrate recent, ongoing and future economic developments in the area.

Later, she will give remarks at the National Guard Deployment Ceremony of the 188th Engineer Detachment, where she will be joined by Secretary of Public Safety and Security Daniel Bennett, Secretary of Veterans Services Francisco Ureña, Representative Joseph McKenna and Representative Claire Cronin.

She will then attend a ribbon cutting ceremony for the Minuteman Career and Technical High School’s Advanced Manufacturing Program as part of the Skills Capital Grant Program, which supports technical training and career development at vocational schools across the Commonwealth.

Afterwards, she will be joined by State Treasurer Deb Goldberg, MassDEP Commissioner Martin Suuberg, state environmental officials and officials from the Town of Billerica for an announcement relative to the financing of municipal water infrastructure projects.

Then, she will join police officers and members of the towns of Tewksbury, Auburn, Leicester and Medford at Tewksbury High School’s Appreciation Night in Honor of Officer Ronald Tarentino, an Auburn Police Officer who was fatally shot while on duty in May 2016.
