Governor Charlie Baker’s Schedule for Wednesday, March 7, 2018

BOSTON – Tomorrow, Governor Charlie Baker and Lt. Governor Karyn Polito will join Secretary of Energy and Environmental Affairs Matthew Beaton, MEMA Director Kurt Schwartz, Highway Administrator Jonathan Gulliver and representatives from the Red Cross and local utility companies to hold a meeting to discuss recovery efforts from last week’s winter storm that dramatically impacted coastal communities and to discuss preparations for tomorrow’s upcoming winter storm that will impact a majority of the Commonwealth.

Following the meeting, they will hold a press conference to discuss winter storm preparations and public safety announcements for residents.

Governor Baker will then participate in the Massachusetts Developmental Disabilities Council and the Arc of Massachusetts Legislative Reception.

Later, he will join Lynn Mayor Thomas McGee, Salem Mayor Kim Driscoll and Representative Dan Cahill to present a proclamation for Absolutely Incredible Kid Day in Massachusetts to encourage and acknowledge the achievements of children nationwide.
