*Chap.*305 AN ACT RELATIVE TO THE DISSOLUTION OF ATTACHMENTS.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

R. L. 167,
§ 112,
amended.

Dissolution of attachment
by death of defendant, etc.

SECTION 1. Section one hundred and twelve of chapter one hundred and sixty-seven of the Revised Laws is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the words: — But no attachment of property, real or personal, shall be so dissolved upon that part of the property which the debtor had alienated before his decease, — so as to read as follows: — Section 112. An attachment of real or personal property shall be dissolved if the debtor dies before it is taken or seized on execution and administration of his estate is granted in this commonwealth upon an application therefor made within one year after his decease. The attaching officer shall also, upon demand, and upon receiving from the executor or administrator of such debtor so appointed his legal fees and charges for attaching and keeping the property attached by him, deliver it to such executor or administrator. But no attachment of property, real or personal, shall be so dissolved upon that part of the property which the debtor had alienated before his decease.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon its passage.
Approved March 19, 1913.

*Chap.*306 AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE CITY OF MEDFORD TO MAKE AN ADDITIONAL LOAN FOR CONSTRUCTING SEWERS.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

Medford
Sewerage Loan, Act of 1913.

SECTION 1. The city of Medford, for the purpose of paying the expenses and liabilities incurred or to be incurred for sewerage purposes under chapter one hundred and eighty of the acts of the year eighteen hundred and ninety-three, may issue from time to time bonds or notes to an amount not exceeding seventy-five thousand dollars in addition to the amount authorized to be issued by said chapter and by chapter two hundred and ninety-six of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and nine, and the same shall not be reckoned in determining the statutory limit of indebtedness of the city. Such bonds or notes shall bear on their face the words, Medford Sewerage Loan, Act of 1913, and shall be payable by such annual payments, beginning not more than one year after the respective dates thereof, as will extinguish each loan within thirty years from its date, and the amount of such annual payment of any loan in any year shall not be less than the amount of the principal of said loan payable in any subsequent year. Each authorized issue of bonds or notes shall constitute a separate loan. Said bonds or notes shall bear interest, payable semi-annually, at such rate, not exceeding four and one half per cent per annum, as the mayor and aldermen of the city may determine. The said securities shall be signed by the mayor and the treasurer of the city, and countersigned by the auditor, and the city may sell the same or any part thereof at public or private sale; but they shall not be sold for less than their par value.

SECTION 2. The said city shall, at the time of authorizing said loan or loans, provide for the payment thereof in accordance with section one of this act; and when a vote to that effect has been passed, a sum which, with the income derived from assessments, rates or payments made in lieu thereof, will be sufficient to pay the annual expense of operating its sewerage system, and the interest as it accrues on the bonds or notes issued as aforesaid by the city, and to make such payments on the principal as may be required under the provisions of this act, shall, without further vote, be assessed by the assessors of the city annually thereafter, in the same manner in which other taxes are assessed, until the debt incurred by said loan or loans is extinguished.

Payment of loan.

SECTION 3. The costs and expenses incurred by the city under authority of chapter one hundred and sixty-two of the acts of the year eighteen hundred and ninety-four, except for construction of walks or ways, may be paid by appropriations from the proceeds of the sale of any securities issued under authority hereof.

Proceeds of sale of bonds, etc., may be used to pay certain costs, etc.

SECTION 4. The amount which the city of Medford may borrow in any one year under authority of this act, shall not exceed fifteen thousand dollars.

Amount which may be borrowed annually limited.

SECTION 5. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

Approved March 19, 1913.
