AN ACT RELATIVE TO RAPE OF AN ELDER OR A PERSON WITH A DISABILITY.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1       SECTION 1 Chapter 265 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2006 Official Edition, is 2 hereby amended by adding the following section after section 22B as so appearing:

3               Section 22C Rape of an elder or person with a disability; punishment

4               (1) Whoever has sexual intercourse or unnatural sexual intercourse with an elder, 5 or with a person with a disability as those terms are defined in section 13K of 6 chapter 265, and compels said elder or person with disability to submit by force 7 and against his or her will or compels said elder or person with a disability to 8 submit by threat of bodily injury, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state 9 prison for life or for any term of years. A prosecution commenced under the 10 provisions of this section shall not be placed on file or continued without a 11 finding.

12              (2) Whoever has sexual intercourse or unnatural sexual intercourse with an elder 13 or a person with a disability and compels said elder or person with disability to 14 submit by force and against his or her will or compels said elder or person with a 15 disability to submit by threat of bodily injury and:

16              (a) the sexual intercourse or unnatural sexual intercourse is committed during 17 the commission or attempted commission of any of the following offenses: (1) 18 armed burglary as set forth in section 14 of chapter 266; (2) unarmed burglary 19 as set forth in section 15 of said chapter 266; (3) breaking and entering as set 20 forth in section 16 of said chapter 266; (4) entering without breaking as set 21 forth in section 17 of said chapter 266; (5) breaking and entering into a 22 dwelling house as set forth in section 18 of said chapter 266; (6) kidnapping as 23 set forth in section 26 of chapter 265; (7) armed robbery as set forth in section 24 17 of said chapter 265; (8) unarmed robbery as set forth in section 19 of said 25 chapter 265; (9) assault and battery with a dangerous weapon or assault with a 26 dangerous weapon as set forth in sections 15A and 15B of said chapter 265; or 27 (10) home invasion as set forth in section 18C of said chapter 265;

28 (b) poses or exhibits the elder or person with a disability in a state of nudity or 29 sexual conduct;

30 (c) the sexual intercourse or unnatural sexual intercourse results in or is 31 committed by means of an act or acts resulting in bodily injury as defined in 32 section 13K of chapter 265;

33 (d) the sexual intercourse or unnatural sexual intercourse is committed while 34 the victim is tied, bound or gagged;

35 (e) the sexual intercourse or unnatural sexual intercourse is committed after 36 the defendant administered or caused to be administered, alcohol or a 37 controlled substance by injection, inhalation, ingestion or any other means to 38 the victim without the victim's consent;

39 (f) the sexual intercourse or unnatural sexual intercourse is committed by a 40 joint enterprise; or

41 (g) the sexual intercourse or unnatural sexual intercourse was committed in a 42 manner in which the victim could contract a sexually transmitted disease or 43 infection of which the defendant knew or should have known he/she was a 44 carrier, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for life or for 45 any term of years, but not less than 15 years. The sentence imposed on such 46 person shall not be reduced to less than 15 years or suspended, nor shall any 47 person convicted under this section be eligible for probation, parole, work 48 release or furlough or receive any deduction from his/her sentence for good 49 conduct until he/she shall have served 15 years of such sentence.

50 Prosecutions commenced under this section shall neither be continued without 51 a finding nor placed on file.

52 (3) Whoever has sexual intercourse or unnatural sexual intercourse with an elder 53 or a person with a disability and compels such elder or person with a disability to 54 submit by force and against his will or compels such elder or persons with a 55 disability to submit by threat of bodily injury, and has been previously convicted 56 of or adjudicated delinquent or as a youthful offender for: indecent assault and 57 battery on an elder or person with a disability as set forth in section 13H of 58 chapter 265; indecent assault and battery on a mentally retarded person as set 59 forth in section 13F of chapter 265; assault and battery upon an elder or disabled 60 person as set forth in section 13K of chapter 265; rape as set forth in section 22 of 61 chapter 265; or a like violation of the laws of another state, the United States or a 62 military, territorial or Indian tribal authority, shall be punished by imprisonment 63 in the state prison for life or for any term of years, but not less than 20 years. The 64 sentence imposed on such person shall not be reduced to less than 20 years, or 65 suspended, nor shall any person convicted under this section be eligible for 66 probation, parole, work release or furlough or receive any deduction from his/her 67 sentence for good conduct until he/she shall have served 20 years of such 68 sentence. Prosecutions commenced under this section shall neither be continued 69 without a finding nor placed on file.

70 In any prosecution commenced pursuant to this section, introduction into 71 evidence of a prior adjudication or conviction or a prior finding of sufficient facts
72 by either certified attested copies of original court papers, or certified attested 73 copies of the defendant's biographical and information data from records of the

74 department of probation, any jail or house of correction or the department of 75 correction, shall be prima facie evidence that the defendant before the court has 76 been convicted previously by a court of the commonwealth or any another
77 jurisdiction. Such documentation shall be self authenticating and admissible, after 78 the commonwealth has established the defendant's guilt on the primary offense,
79 as evidence in any court of the commonwealth to prove the defendant's 80 commission of any prior conviction described therein. The commonwealth shall 81 not be required to introduce any additional corroborating evidence or live witness
82 testimony to establish the validity of such prior conviction.

83 (4) Whoever unlawfully has sexual intercourse or unnatural sexual intercourse
84 with and abuses an elder or a person with a disability as defined in section 13K of 85 chapter 265 shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for life or for 86 any term of years or, except as otherwise provided, for any term in a jail or house 87 of correction. A prosecution commenced under this section shall neither be 88 continued without a finding nor placed on file.

89 (5) Whoever unlawfully has sexual intercourse or unnatural sexual intercourse 90 with and abuses an elder or a person with a disability and at the time of such 91 intercourse is a caretaker as defined in section 13K of chapter 265 or a mandated 92 reporter as defined in section 15A of chapter 19A and section 10 of chapter 19C 93 respectively shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for life or for 94 any term of years, but not less than 10 years. The sentence imposed on such 95 person shall not be reduced to less than 10 years, or suspended, nor shall any 96 person convicted under this section be eligible for probation, parole, work release, 97 or furlough or receive any deduction from his sentence for good conduct until he 98 shall have served 10 years of such sentence. Prosecution commenced under this 99 section shall neither be continued without a finding nor placed on file.

100 (6) Whoever unlawfully has sexual intercourse or unnatural sexual intercourse
101 with and abuses an elder or a person with a disability as defined in section 13K of 102 chapter 265 and has been previously convicted of or adjudicated delinquent or as 103 a youthful offender for: indecent assault and battery on an elder or person with a 104 disability as set forth in section 13H of chapter 265; indecent assault and battery 105 on a mentally retarded person as set forth in section 13F of chapter 265; assault 106 and battery upon an elder or disabled person as set forth in section 13K of chapter 107 265; rape as set forth in section 22 of chapter 265; or a like violation of the laws 108 of another state, the United States or a military, territorial or Indian tribal 109 authority, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for life or for any 110 term of years, but not less than 15 years. The sentence imposed on such person 111 shall not be reduced to less than 15 years, or suspended, nor shall any person 112 convicted under this section be eligible for probation, parole, work release or 113 furlough or receive any deduction from his/her sentence for good conduct until 114 he/she shall have served 15 years of such sentence. Prosecutions commenced 115 under this section shall neither be continued without a finding nor placed on file.

116 In any prosecution commenced pursuant to this section, introduction into

121 correction, shall be prima facie evidence that the defendant before the court has 122 been convicted previously by a court of the commonwealth or any another
123 jurisdiction. Such documentation shall be self authenticating and admissible, after 124 the commonwealth has established the defendant's guilt on the primary offense,
125 as evidence in any court of the commonwealth to prove the defendant's
126 commission of any prior conviction described therein. The commonwealth shall 127 not be required to introduce any additional corroborating evidence or live witness
128 testimony to establish the validity of such prior conviction.

129 (7) Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, the chief justice 130 for administration and management of the trial court shall establish and 131 implement an annual reporting system that shall provide information to the joint 132 committee on the judiciary relative to the prosecution and disposition of cases 133 which involve offenses established under this act. The reporting system shall be 134 established not later than December 31, 2010 and the first annual report shall be 135 filed with the clerk of the house and the clerk of senate and the joint committee on 136 the judiciary not later than December 31, 2011.
