RESOLVE on the Petition of Sarah Cazneau Seaver, the widow of Heman Seaver.

Resolved, that, for the reasons set forth in said petition, Thomas Cole, administrator de bonis non, with the will annexed, of the goods and estate of said Heman Seaver, is hereby authorized to sell, at public auction, and by good and sufficient deed or deeds, to convey to the purchaser or purchasers, all that farm in the town of Marlborough, in the county of Middlesex, which, by the will of said Heman, was devised to the said Sarah Cazneau Seaver, for her own use and enjoyment during her natural life: provided, that the said Cole shall first give public notice of the time and place of such sale, under the direction of the judge of probate for said county of Middlesex, in the manner prescribed by law, when license is granted to sell the real estate of a person deceased for the payment of his just debts; and shall also, before fixing on the time and place of sale, take and subscribe an oath, similar to that prescribed by law in cases of such sale as aforesaid, by an executor or administrator; and shall also give bond to the said judge of probate, with two sufficient sureties, conditioned to invest, manage and dispose of the proceeds of such sale, in the manner directed by said will. And the proceeds of such sale shall at all times be liable to the payment of the just debts of the said Heman Seaver, and the charges against his estate, in the same manner that said real estate would have been liable, had the same not been sold by virtue of this resolve. And in case the said Cole shall die before the proceeds of such sale are divided, according to the directions of said will, or shall resign or be removed from his said trust, the said judge of probate is hereby authorized to appoint a trustee in the place of said Cole, to manage and dispose of said trust fund, requiring such trustee to give a bond with sureties, in the same manner as is herein required to be given by said Cole. [Approved by the Governor, February 28, 1840.]
