Approved June 19, 1936.

Chap. 65 RESOLVE IN FAVOR OF BURTON E. BARNES OF PITTSFIELD.

Resolved, That, for the purpose of discharging the moral obligation of the commonwealth in the premises and after an appropriation has been made, there be allowed and paid out of the treasury of the commonwealth to Burton E. Barnes of Pittsfield the sum of five hundred dollars, to compensate him for injuries received when a pheasant crashed through the windshield of his automobile.

(This resolve, returned by the governor to the House of Representatives, the branch in which it originated, with his objections thereto, was passed by the House of Representatives, June 23, 1936, and, in concurrence, by the Senate, June 23, P.M., 1936, the objections of the governor notwithstanding, in the manner prescribed by the constitution; and thereby has "the force of a law".)

Chap. 66 RESOLVE PROVIDING FOR A STUDY BY A SPECIAL UNPAID COMMISSION RELATIVE TO THE FUNCTIONS AND PROBLEMS OF THE BOSTON PORT AUTHORITY, AND OTHER RELATED MATTERS, WITH A VIEW TO FACILITATING THE PRODUCTION AND DEVELOPMENT OF THE COMMERCE OF THE PORT OF BOSTON AND OTHER PORTS IN THE COMMONWEALTH.

Resolved, That a special unpaid commission, to consist of one member of the senate to be designated by the president thereof, three members of the house of representatives to be designated by the speaker thereof, two persons to be appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council, one person to be appointed by the mayor of the city of Boston, the chairman of the Boston Port Authority or a person to be designated by said chairman, and the commissioner of public works or a person to be designated by said commissioner, is hereby established for the purpose of making a comprehensive study relative to the functioning and problems of the Boston Port Authority, the advisability of transferring to said authority the operation of the waterfront terminals of the commonwealth, and other related matters, with a view to facilitating the production and development of the commerce of the port of Boston and other ports in the commonwealth. The commission shall hold public hearings, shall be provided with quarters in the state house or elsewhere, and may expend, with the approval of the governor and council, for clerical and other services and expenses, such sums, not exceeding, in the aggregate, three thousand dollars, as may hereafter be appropriated. The commission shall report to the general court the results of its investigation, and its recommendations, if
