Chapter 142 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out section 21, as appearing in the 1984 Official Edition, and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

Section 21. The examiners shall formulate rules relative to the construction, alteration, repair and inspection of all plumbing and gas fitting work in buildings owned, used and constructed by the commonwealth and in buildings owned, used and constructed by the University of Massachusetts Building Authority, Massachusetts Turnpike Authority, Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority, Massachusetts Port Authority, Metropolitan district commission and the government center commission, subject to the approval of the department of public health, and all plans for plumbing and gas fitting in such buildings shall be subject to the approval of the examiners.

Approved August 11, 1987.

Chapter 357. AN ACT RELATIVE TO THE USE OF EXECUTIONS IN SUMMARY PROCESS CASES.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 235 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out section 23, as appearing in the 1986 Official Edition, and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

Section 23. Original executions issuing on judgments against executors, administrators, trustees and other fiduciary officers in their representative capacity, including any such original execution running against two or more parties, any one or more of whom are fiduciary officers as aforesaid in their representative capacity, or against sheriffs under section ten of chapter thirty-seven, or on special judgments entered under section twenty-four, shall be made returnable within sixty days after the date of the execution. Except as hereinafter provided, in all other cases, original executions shall be made returnable within twenty years after the date of the judgment.

Executions for possession of premises rented or leased for dwelling purposes obtained in actions pursuant to chapter two hundred and thirty-nine shall not be issued later than three months following the date of judgment, except that any period during which execution was stayed by order of the court or by an agreement of the parties filed with the court shall be excluded from the computation of the period of limitation. Such executions shall be made returnable within three months after the date of issuance and shall state the date of issuance
