

migration of paupers and criminals, as authorized by chapter one hundred and five of the resolves of the present year, the sum of five hundred and seventy-four dollars and forty-one cents, being the unexpended balance of the one thousand dollars authorized by the resolve creating the commission.

North wing of state prison.

For the completion of the north wing of the state prison at Boston, as authorized by chapter one hundred and six of the resolves of the present year, a sum not exceeding nine thousand dollars.

Reformatory prison for women.

For repairs at the reformatory prison for women, as authorized by chapter one hundred and seven of the resolves of the present year, a sum not exceeding seven thousand dollars.

Ballot law commissioners.

For expenses of an investigation by the ballot law commissioners relating to the evasion and violation of the election laws, as authorized by chapter one hundred and eight of the resolves of the present year, a sum not exceeding one thousand dollars.

New building at state prison.

For the construction of a building at the state prison at Boston for the separate confinement of prisoners, as authorized by chapter one hundred and nine of the resolves of the present year, a sum not exceeding fifty thousand dollars.

Special laws.

For the publication of certain special laws, as authorized by chapter one hundred and ten of the resolves of the present year, a sum not exceeding four thousand dollars.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

Approved July 2, 1894.

Chap. 547 AN ACT RELATIVE TO THE SPEEDY TRIAL OF CERTAIN CAUSES IN THE SUPERIOR COURT FOR THE COUNTY OF SUFFOLK.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

Session for speedy trial of certain causes.

The superior court shall, in the county of Suffolk, except in the months of July, August and September, hold a separate and continuous session so far as the same is practicable, for the speedy trial of the actions and causes named in chapter two hundred and eighty-three of the acts of the present year.

Approved July 2, 1894.