

To constitute a lien upon real estate, etc.

Proviso.

annual tax of said real estate for each year next ensuing until all said parts have been so added. Such assessments or charges, or apportionments thereof shall constitute a lien upon the real estate, and may be collected according to the provisions of law made for the collection of taxes upon real estate. All liens for the collection of such assessments or charges shall continue until the expiration of two years from the time when the last instalment is committed to the collector, and interest shall be added to all such assessments or charges until they are paid: provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the payment at any time in one payment of any balance of said assessments or charges then remaining unpaid, notwithstanding a prior apportionment.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

Approved April 10, 1897.
