

applicant has suffered no damage he shall pay the costs of the appraisers.

SECTION 2. If any such telegraph or telephone company shall not pay the amount of the damages appraised as provided in section one of this act, or in case of appeal the amount of the final judgment, within thirty days after demand, the mayor and aldermen or selectmen may upon request of the person in whose favor such appraisal or judgment was made remove all the posts, wires or other structures of such company from that portion of the street or way upon which the land of such person abuts. Before the mayor and aldermen or selectmen remove any such posts, wires or other structures they shall leave a written statement at the office of such company in such city or town of the time when and place where they intend to remove such posts, wires or structures, not less than forty-eight hours prior to such removal. If such company has no office in such city or town such notice shall be deposited in the post office, postage prepaid, and directed to such company at its office in some city or town in the county. The city or town so removing any such posts, wires or structures may recover the expense thereof of such company. Nothing in this section shall prevent such judgment creditor from the collection of the amount due him in the manner provided by law.

If amount is not paid within thirty days, posts may be removed.

Expense of removal recoverable from the company.
