

continue for the term of ten years therefrom; and at the place where the said toll shall be taken or received, there shall be erected and kept constantly exposed to view, a sign-board, with the rates of toll fairly and legibly written thereon in large letters.

Regulation.

SECT. 3. The Legislature shall have the power to regulate the rates of toll to be taken at said bridge, to amend, alter, or repeal this act at their discretion; any thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithstanding. [Approved by the Governor, March 24, 1843.]

Chap. 92.

An Act concerning Foreign Wills.

BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives, in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Wills duly made abroad, by inhabitants of this State, may be proved, &c., in this state.

SECT. 1. Any will of an inhabitant of this State made in any other of the United States, or in any foreign country, and which might be proved and allowed according to the laws of such State or country, may be proved and recorded in this State, and may be proceeded in, and have the same effect, as if it had been executed conformably to the provisions of section sixth, of chapter sixty-second of the Revised Statutes.

So of wills of inhabitants of other States.

SECT. 2. Any will of an inhabitant of any other State or country not made in this State, and which might be proved and allowed according to the laws of the State or country where the will was made, may be proved and recorded in this State, and any estate of the testator found in this Commonwealth shall be disposed of according to said will and the laws of this Commonwealth in the same manner as if said will had been executed according to the laws of this State.

Repeal.

SECT. 3. All laws inconsistent with the provisions in this law are hereby repealed. [Approved by the Governor, March 24, 1843.]

Chap. 93.

An Act to regulate Banks and Banking.

BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives, in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Respecting surrenders of charter, &c.

SECT. 1. In every case in which the stockholders of a bank may desire, under existing laws, to surrender their charter, and in every case in which a bank has been authorized to reduce its capital stock, the governor, with the advice of the council, shall appoint a special commissioner, who shall exercise the powers and perform all the duties conferred upon and required of bank commissioners by the acts passed February twenty-third, and April thirteenth, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, so far as the same relates to the surrender of bank charters;