

HOUSE No. 133

By Mr. Fernandes of Milford, a resolve (accompanied by resolve, House, No. 133) of John V. Fernandes and others for an investigation by a special commission (including members of the General Court) relative to the impact of undocumented aliens. Children, Families and Persons with Disabilities.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Nine

Resolve providing for an investigation and study by a special commission relative to the impact of undocumented aliens residing in the commonwealth.

1 Resolved, That a special commission to consist of the co-chairs of the joint committee on 2 children and families, the co-chairs of the joint committee on education, the co-chairs of the joint 3 committee on public health the co-chairs of the joint committee on public safety and homeland
4 security, 2 members of the senate, 1 member of the senate to be appointed by the minority leader, 5 2 members of the house of representatives, 1 member of the house of representatives to be 6 appointed by the minority leader, the attorney general or her designee, the secretary of public 7 safety or his designee, the secretary of housing and economic development or his designee; the 8 secretary of health and human services or her designee; the commissioner of education or his 9 designee; the chancellor of higher education, or her designee; and five members appointed by the 10 governor with expertise in immigration issues, is hereby established for the purpose of making 11 an investigation and study relative to the impact, both positive and negative, of undocumented 12 aliens living in the commonwealth, the economic (including the impact on tax revenue, and the 13 fiscal ramifications of compliance with federal laws requiring the provisions of specific services

14 to undocumented aliens), public safety, education, health, social service, business competition, 15 workforce development, (including the need for workers willing to work in low paying jobs and 16 industries), and housing impacts of undocumented aliens residing in Massachusetts; the 17 respective roles of federal, state and local governments in addressing the need for, cost of, and 18 legal basis of providing services, including employment and training, housing, public education, 19 or health care for such residents; and a review of actions being taken by other states in response 20 to the increase in undocumented aliens within their borders; and any other relevant issues. The 21 commission shall also make recommendations about what actions, if any, should be implemented 22 to address the issues raised by the presence of undocumented aliens in the commonwealth. The 23 commission shall report to the general court the results of its investigation and study, and its 24 recommendations, if any, together with drafts of legislation necessary to carry such 25 recommendations into effect by filing them with the clerk of the senate and the clerk of the house
26 of representatives on or before June 30, 2008. The commission may issue preliminary or interim 27 reports to the general court before that date.