

HOUSE No. 167

By Mr. Sala of North Adams, petition of Edward B. Nassef and others relative to the fixing of reasonable tuition fees for summer schools and regulating the attendance therein by residents and non-residents. Education.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Sixty-Five.

AN ACT PROVIDING FOR THE FIXING OF REASONABLE TUITION FEES FOR SUMMER SCHOOL.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

- 1 Section 28 of chapter 71 is hereby amended by adding thereto
- 2 the following paragraph:—
- 3 The school committee may, in its discretion, fix reasonable
- 4 fees for tuition of said schools and attendance therein by resi-
- 5 dents and non-residents.

The following report of the Committee on the Administration of the Government, together with the report of the Committee on the Administration of the Government, is hereby published as a separate report.

The Administration of the Government

Report of the Committee on the Administration of the Government

The following report of the Committee on the Administration of the Government, together with the report of the Committee on the Administration of the Government, is hereby published as a separate report.

The following report of the Committee on the Administration of the Government, together with the report of the Committee on the Administration of the Government, is hereby published as a separate report.

The following report of the Committee on the Administration of the Government, together with the report of the Committee on the Administration of the Government, is hereby published as a separate report.

The following report of the Committee on the Administration of the Government, together with the report of the Committee on the Administration of the Government, is hereby published as a separate report.