Chap. 529. AN ACT REQUIRING CERTAIN PRECAUTIONS BEFORE ADMINISTERING RADIATION TREATMENT.

Whereas, The deferred operation of this act would tend to defeat its purpose, which is to immediately provide for safeguards from radiation treatments, therefore it is hereby declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

Chapter 111 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after section 5I the following section:-

Section 5J. Any person who administers radiation treatment of any kind to another person shall use lead shields to protect such other person when clinically appropriate. If such other person is a female, any person who so administers such radiation treatment shall inform her that radiation can be hazardous to an unborn child, shall inquire whether such female believes she is pregnant, and if the answers is affirmative, take clinically appropriate precautions before administering such treatment.

Approved August 20, 1979.
