Governor Baker Issues Statement on Presidential Election

BOSTON—Today, Governor Charlie Baker released the following statement on the results of the 2016 Presidential Election:

“The people of Massachusetts deserve a federal government that works collaboratively to solve our nation’s problems and it is my hope that President-elect Donald Trump works quickly to unite our country after a divisive election. Our administration is eager to partner with the next administration to tackle the most pressing issues for our state, region and country.”
