

HOUSE No. 417

By Mr. Murray of Beverly, petition of Cornelius J. Murray that there be paid out of the state treasury to the widow of the late Representative Andrew E. Faulkner of Beverly the salary to which he would have been entitled had he been sworn in and served until the end of the term for which he was re-elected. Ways and Means (House).

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty-One.

RESOLVE IN FAVOR OF THE WIDOW OF THE LATE ANDREW E.
FAULKNER.

1 Resolved, That, for the purpose of promoting the
2 public good, and after an appropriation has been
3 made therefor, there be paid out of the state treasury
4 to the widow of the late Andrew E. Faulkner, who
5 died while a member of the house of representatives
6 and after he had been re-elected for another term,
7 the salary to which he would have been entitled if
8 he had been sworn in and had served until the end
9 of the term for which he was re-elected.

HOUSE No. 417

The House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, do hereby certify that the following is a true and correct copy of the report of the Committee on the Administration of the Government, as printed by the Government Printing Office, in the year 1900.

The Committee on the Administration of the Government

Report of the Committee on the Administration of the Government

Presented to the House of Representatives at the second session of the Fifty-sixth Congress, in the year 1900.

WASHINGTON

1. The Committee on the Administration of the Government, created by the act of the House of Representatives, approved July 1, 1899, and reorganized by the act of the House of Representatives, approved July 1, 1900, has the honor to submit to the House its report on the administration of the Government during the year 1900. The report is divided into two parts, the first of which contains a general statement of the condition of the Government at the beginning of the year, and the second of which contains a detailed statement of the condition of the Government at the end of the year. The report is also divided into two parts, the first of which contains a general statement of the condition of the Government at the beginning of the year, and the second of which contains a detailed statement of the condition of the Government at the end of the year.
