

which shall bear on their face the words, Plymouth County Tuberculosis Hospital Loan, Act of 1937; and such notes shall be payable in not more than four years from their dates. Such notes shall be signed by the treasurer of the county and countersigned by a majority of the county commissioners. Said securities may be sold at public or private sale upon such terms and conditions as the said treasurer and county commissioners may deem proper, but not for less than their par value. All money so borrowed shall be deposited in the county treasury and the county treasurer shall pay out the same as ordered by the county commissioners. The county treasurer shall keep a separate account of all money so borrowed and expended. Indebtedness under this act shall, except as herein provided, be subject to chapter thirty-five of the General Laws. All sums necessary to meet interest payments on notes issued under this act and payments on account of principal as the same mature shall be assessed upon the twenty-six towns and one city of said county constituting the hospital district, with other assessments made under section eighty-five of chapter one hundred and eleven of the General Laws.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon its acceptance during the current year by the county commissioners of the county of Plymouth, but not otherwise.

Approved February 26, 1937.

AN ACT AUTHORIZING THE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS OF PLYMOUTH COUNTY TO CONSTRUCT AN ELEVATED TANK FOR WATER SUPPLY AND TO MAKE CERTAIN OTHER IMPROVEMENTS AT THE COUNTY JAIL AND HOUSE OF CORRECTION AT PLYMOUTH. Chap. 62

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. For the purpose of providing better fire protection, installing modern sanitary toilet facilities, constructing an elevated water tank and connections, and surfacing driveways, at the jail and house of correction at Plymouth, the county commissioners of Plymouth county may expend a sum not to exceed thirty-five thousand dollars.

SECTION 2. For the purposes aforesaid, the treasurer of said county, with the approval of the county commissioners, may borrow upon the credit of the county such sums as may be necessary, not exceeding, in the aggregate, thirty-five thousand dollars, and may issue notes of the county therefor, which shall bear on their face the words, Plymouth County Jail and House of Correction Loan, Act of 1937. Each authorized issue shall constitute a separate loan and such loans shall be payable in not more than five years from their dates. Such notes shall be signed by the treasurer of the county and countersigned by a majority of the county commissioners. The county may sell the said securities at public or private sale upon such terms and conditions as the county commissioners may deem proper, but not for less than their par value. Indebtedness incurred hereunder shall, except as herein provided, be subject to chapter thirty-five of the General Laws.

SECTION 3. The county treasurer, with the approval of the county commissioners, may issue temporary notes of the county, payable in not more than one year from their dates, in anticipation of the issue of serial notes under this act, but the time within which such serial notes shall become due and payable shall not, by reason of such temporary notes, be extended beyond the time fixed by this act. Any notes issued in anticipation of the serial notes shall be paid from the proceeds thereof.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect upon its acceptance during the current year by the county commissioners of the county of Plymouth, but not otherwise.

Approved February 26, 1937.

Chap. 63 AN ACT AUTHORIZING THE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS OF THE COUNTY OF PLYMOUTH TO ACQUIRE PROPERTY FOR THE USE OF THE SECOND DISTRICT COURT OF SAID COUNTY, LOCATED IN THE TOWN OF HINGHAM.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. The county commissioners of the county of Plymouth may acquire by purchase or otherwise the building and lot at Hingham in said county now leased by said county and occupied by the second district court of Plymouth, together with an adjoining lot, for use by said court, and may expend for such purposes a sum not exceeding sixty-five thousand dollars.

SECTION 2. For the purposes aforesaid, the treasurer of said county, with the approval of the county commissioners, may borrow upon the credit of the county such sums as may be necessary, not exceeding, in the aggregate, sixty-five thousand dollars, and may issue notes of the county therefor, which shall bear on their face the words, Plymouth County Court House Loan, Act of 1937. Each authorized issue shall constitute a separate loan and such loans shall be payable in not more than five years from their dates. Such notes shall be signed by the treasurer of the county and countersigned by a majority of the county commissioners. The county may sell the said securities at public or private sale upon such terms and conditions as the county commissioners may deem proper, but not for less than their par value. Indebtedness incurred hereunder shall, except as herein provided, be subject to chapter thirty-five of the General Laws.

SECTION 3. The county treasurer, with the approval of the county commissioners, may issue temporary notes of the county, payable in not more than one year from their dates, in anticipation of the issue of serial notes under this act, but the time within which such serial notes shall become due
