The Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifteen.

RESOLUTIONS

Relative to the Direct Nomination and Election of President of the United States.

1 Whereas, The electoral college has failed to subserve
2 the purpose for which it was intended and is now an
3 obsolete and harmful contrivance, therefore be it

4 Resolved, That the congress of the United States is
5 urged by the general court of Massachusetts to take such
6 measures as may be necessary to provide for a direct
7 nomination and election of the president of the United
8 States, and for the abolition of the electoral college.
