

HOUSE . . . . No. 261

---

---

By Mr. Clemons of Wakefield, petition of Maynard E. S. Clemons relative to the time in which land taken or sold for taxes may be redeemed. Taxation. Jan. 8.

---

---

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Twenty-Five.

---

An Act relative to the Redemption of Tax Titles.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Section sixty-two of chapter sixty of the General
2 Laws, as amended by chapter three of the acts of
3 nineteen hundred and twenty-four, is hereby further
4 amended by striking out the words "within two
5 years" in the fourth line thereof and inserting
6 after the word "sale" in said fourth line, the
7 words:— and prior to the foreclosure under section
8 sixty-four of this chapter.

The Administration of the Government

The Administration of the Government is a subject of great importance and interest to the people of this country. It is a subject which has attracted the attention of the public mind for many years past. The people are entitled to know the principles and the practice of the administration of the government, and to be able to judge of the merits and demerits of the various systems which have been proposed and adopted. This is a subject which has been the subject of much discussion and controversy, and it is one which has attracted the attention of the public mind for many years past. The people are entitled to know the principles and the practice of the administration of the government, and to be able to judge of the merits and demerits of the various systems which have been proposed and adopted. This is a subject which has been the subject of much discussion and controversy, and it is one which has attracted the attention of the public mind for many years past.