

By Mr. Petersen of Marblehead, petition of Douglas W. Petersen and other members of the General Court for legislation to increase recycling programs in the Commonwealth and providing for expansion of the bottle bill, so-called. Energy.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand and Three.

AN ACT TO PROTECT THE NATURAL RESOURCES OF THE COMMONWEALTH.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 321 of Chapter 94 of the General Laws,
2 as appearing in the 1998 Official Edition, is hereby amended by 3 striking out the definitions for “beverage” and “beverage con-4 tainer”, and inserting in place thereof the following definitions:—

5 “Beverage”, soda water or similar carbonated soft drinks, min-6 eral water, beer and other malt beverages, wine and wine-based 7 drinks, spirits and spirit-based drinks, hard cider, and all non-alco-8 holic carbonated and noncarbonated drinks in liquid form 9 intended for human consumption except milk and dairy derived 10 products.

11 “Beverage container”, any sealable bottle, can, jar, or carton 12 which is primarily composed of glass, metal, plastic, or any com-13 bination of those materials and is produced for the purpose of con-14 taining a beverage, which, at the time of sale, contains four liters 15 or less of a beverage. This definition shall not include containers 16 made of biodegradable material.

1 SECTION 2. Section 321 of Chapter 94 of the General Laws,
2 as appearing in the 1998 Official Edition, is hereby amended by 3 adding, after the definition of “Plastic bottle” the following defin-4 ition:—

5 “Redemption center”, any business whose primary purpose is 6 the redemption of beverage containers and is not ancillary to any

7 other business, and that employs at least two full-time employees 8 who spend at least seventy-five percent of their time in the busi-9 ness of collecting and redeeming empty beverage containers.

1 SECTION 3. Section 321 of Chapter 94 of the General Laws,
2 as so appearing, is hereby amended by adding, after the definition
3 of “Reusable beverage container”, the following definition:—

4 “Small dealer”, any person, including any operator of a vending 5 machine, employing the equivalent of ten full time employees or 6 less, who engages in the sale of beverages in beverage containers 7 to consumers in the commonwealth.

1 SECTION 4. Section 323 of Chapter 94 of the General Laws,
2 as so appearing, is hereby amended by adding in line 30 after the 3 letter “(e)”, the following:—

4 The executive office of environmental affairs shall promulgate 5 rules and regulations for the licensure of redemption centers, and 6 may set fees for the licensing of such redemption centers.

1 SECTION 5. Section 323 of Chapter 94 of the General Laws,
2 as appearing in the 1998 Official Edition, is hereby amended by 3 striking out in line 36 the words “one cent” and inserting in place 4 thereof the words “three cents.”

1 SECTION 6. Section 323 of Chapter 94 of the General Laws,
2 as appearing in the 1998 Official Edition, is hereby amended by 3 striking out in line 69 the words “ten cases of twenty-four empty 4 beverage containers each,” and inserting in place thereof the 5 words “ninety-six empty beverage containers”.

1 SECTION 7. Section 323 of Chapter 94 of the General Laws,
2 as so appearing, is hereby amended by adding in line 73, after the 3 word “civil”, the words “or administrative”.

1 SECTION 8. Section 323 of Chapter 94 of the General Laws,
2 as so appearing, is hereby amended by adding in line 73 after the 3 word “twenty-seven,” the following:—

4 At each location where persons tender containers for redemp-
5 tion, dealers and redemption centers shall conspicuously display a

6 sign in letters that are at least one inch in height with the 7 following information: "WARNING: Persons tendering containers
8 for redemption that were not originally purchased in Massachu-9 setts may be subject to a fine of the greater of one hundred dollars 10 per container or twenty-five thousand dollars for each tender of 11 containers. (G.L. c. 94, Section 327)."

1 SECTION 9. Section 323 of Chapter 94 of the General Laws,
2 as so appearing, is hereby amended by adding after the last para-
3 graph of said section, the following:—

4 (j) A person who tenders beverage containers totaling more 5 than twenty-five dollars in refund value on any one business day 6 must sign a statement as described in this paragraph. A redemp-7 tion center or dealer must obtain a signed statement from each 8 person who tenders beverage containers totaling more than 9 twenty-five dollars in redemption value on any one business day.
10 The statement must be on a form supplied by the executive office 11 of environmental affairs and must include the total refund value of 12 containers redeemed and the name, address and signature of the 13 person who tenders the containers. The statement must inform the 14 person of the penalty for knowingly tendering containers not pur-15 chased in Massachusetts. The statement must also inform the 16 person that, by signing the statement, that person certifies that to 17 the best of that person's knowledge the containers were purchased 18 in Massachusetts. The redemption center or dealer shall file all 19 statements required under this paragraph quarterly with the 20 department of environmental protection and make the statements 21 available to the department or the executive office of environ-22 mental affairs or any other person authorized to enforce this law 23 upon request.

1 SECTION 10. Section 323F of Chapter 94 of the General Laws,
2 as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking out in lines 4 and 5 3 the words "programs and projects in the management of solid 4 waste and for environmental protection;" and inserting in place 5 thereof the following:— recycling; programs and projects related 6 to the "bottle bill", so-called; composting; and solid waste source 7 reduction projects and programs;.

1 SECTION 11. Section 323F of Chapter 94 of the General Laws,
2 as so appearing, is hereby amended by deleting subsections (c)
3 and (d) and inserting in place thereof the following:—

4 (c) Not more than fifty percent of amounts deposited in the 5 Fund shall be used for bottle-bill related programs and projects, 6 including enforcement and programs to assist small dealers in 7 implementing the provisions of section three hundred and twenty-8 three and three hundred and twenty-five. Such assistance shall be 9 available in the form of grant and loan programs, including pro-10 grams to help small dealers purchase reverse vending machines.
11 The secretary of environmental affairs shall promulgate regula-12 tions establishing eligibility criteria and application procedures 13 for such grants and loans. In addition, grants and loans shall be 14 made available to businesses without direct store delivery systems 15 to assist such businesses in implementing the provisions of section 16 three hundred and twenty-three and three hundred and twenty-17 five. Such grants and loans to businesses without direct store 18 delivery systems shall be available on a one-time basis only and 19 the amounts of such grants and loans shall be determined by the 20 secretary of environmental affairs based upon the number of full-21 time equivalent employees employed at the business. The secre-
22 tary of environmental affairs shall promulgate regulations or issue 23 guidelines establishing eligibility criteria and application proce-24 dures for such grants and loans.

1 SECTION 12. Section 323F of Chapter 94 of the General Laws, 2 as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking out in line 16 the 3 letter “(e)” and inserting in place thereof the following:— (d).

1 SECTION 13. Section 323F of Chapter 94 of the General Laws, 2 as so appearing, is hereby further amended by striking out in 3 line 16 the words “through (d)” and inserting in place thereof the 4 following:— and (c).

1 SECTION 14. Section 326 of Chapter 94 of the General Laws, 2 as so appearing, is hereby amended by adding in line three after 3 the word “inclusive”, the following:— and paragraph (i).

1 SECTION 15. Section 326 of Chapter 94 of the General Laws,
2 as so appearing, is hereby amended by adding in line 7 after the 3 word “sections.”, the following:—

4 Said secretary shall have the discretion to exempt small dealers, 5 as defined in section 321 of this chapter, from the provisions of 6 said sections as pertaining to wine and wine-based drinks, spirits 7 and spirit-based drinks, hard cider, and all non-carbonated drinks 8 until December first, two thousand and two, in order to allow 9 small dealers sufficient time to comply with these additional 10 requirements.

1 SECTION 16. Section 326 of Chapter 94 of the General Laws,
2 as so appearing, is hereby amended by inserting after the word 3 “feasible” in line 29 the following paragraph:—

4 The secretary shall file a report on implementation of the 5 “bottle bill”, so-called, annually with the joint committee on 6 energy, joint committee on natural resources and agriculture, and 7 the house and senate committees on ways and means on or before 8 December thirty-first of each year. The report shall contain, but 9 not be limited to, information concerning state wide redemption 10 rates of beverage containers as defined herein, an evaluation of 11 the bottle bill program, and as necessary, suggestions to improve 12 the program.

1 SECTION 17. Section 327 of Chapter 94 of the General Laws, 2 as so appearing, is hereby amended by inserting after the first 3 paragraph the following new paragraphs:—

4 The department of environmental protection shall have 5 authority to enforce the provisions of sections three hundred and 6 twenty-one; three hundred and twenty-two; paragraphs (a) through 7 (f) inclusive, and paragraph (i) of section three hundred and 8 twenty-three; three hundred and twenty-three A; three hundred 9 and twenty-three F; three hundred and twenty-four; and three hun-10 dred and twenty-five. Any bottler, distributor, redemption center, 11 or dealer who violates any of the foregoing provisions shall be 12 subject to an administrative penalty for each violation of not more 13 than one thousand dollars.

14 The department of revenue shall have authority to enforce the 15 provisions of paragraphs (g) and (h) of section three hundred and 16 twenty-three and sections three hundred and twenty-three B to 17 three hundred and twenty-three E, inclusive. Any bottler, distrib-18 utor, redemption center, or dealer who violates any of the fore-19 going provisions shall be subject to an administrative penalty for 20 each violation of not more than one thousand dollars.

1 SECTION 18. Section 327 of Chapter 94 of the General Laws,
2 as so appearing, is hereby amended by adding after the word 3 “civil” in line 14 the words “or administrative”.

1 SECTION 19. This act shall take effect on December first, two 2 thousand and four.
